

ASSIGNMENT 2

Our Guiding Star is:

A unified and efficient implementation of the Ecological Solid Waste Management Act that aligns with a circular economy system for sustainability.

Our Near Star is:

Key actors within the waste management system and circular economy system collaborating together in developing and implementing adaptive approaches.

Our Framing Question is:

What challenges do the various key actors face within their systems that hinders them from working together in developing adaptive approaches?